

5.7 -- CLASSROOM ORGANIZATION

Effective teaching is directly proportionate to teacher/pupil ratios. The teaching load in the secondary and elementary schools shall be consistent with the regulations of the North Central Association and the State Board of Education.

The mental, physical, emotional, and social differences of children shall be carefully considered in the grouping of children. Membership in a group shall be flexible in order to accommodate changes and needs of individual children.