»»» Mrs. Helling's Class

Writing: We're finishing up our fantasy unit this week. After break, we'll move onto test prep!

Reading: We're finishing up reading The BFG and will watch the movie this week. Make sure permission slips are signed!

Social Studies: We're finishing up our study of the Byzantine Empire this coming week.

Math: Students will calculate tax, tips, and other percentages using their knowledge of addition, subtraction, multiplication, or division of decimals.

Science: Students will investigate a food outbreak in Montgomery Hills. They will use their medical knowledge to uncover where the outbreak started, what caused it, and how to prevent it from spreading.
