Reading	Writing	Social Studies
Unit 4: Fantasy Reading Students are wrapping up reading their fantasy books. Next week students will identify the lessons learned and theme to our read aloud book, The Bfg. We will watch the movie on Wednesday. Please return your child's permission form by Monday. "There are many little ways to enlarge your world. Love of books is the best of all." - Jacqueline Kennedy	Unit 4: Fantasy Writing Students revised and edited their fantasy stories and published. We plan to print our finished masterpieces on Monday. In addition, students wrote to a prompt, practicing on demand writing skills. This practice is helpful for students to gain confidence for the upcoming ActAspire writing test.	Students worked on Era 3 projects. Some students are creating brochures and posters while others are completing slide-shows. Thank you for scheduling your child's conference next week. A second reminder will be sent home on Monday. We look forward to visiting with you next week.

Math	Science	Reminders!
We spent this week learning how to divide and multiply fractions. We worked in tables and in small groups to work on our skills. Next week we will have a quiz to review what we have learned.	This week the students have been researching toxins. Students were given a "medical case" in which they have to figure out what toxin is making everyone sick! Congratulations Brannon Davidson & Cassie Higgins Students of the Month "Awesome Role Models"	NO SCHOOL FRIDAY, MARCH 20 – FRIDAY, MARCH 27 SPRING BREAK
